

Login screen

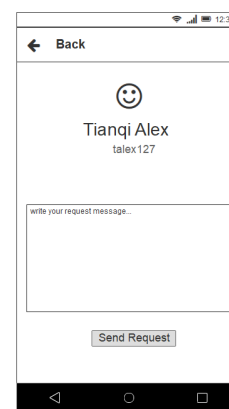

Login as a care provider or a patient

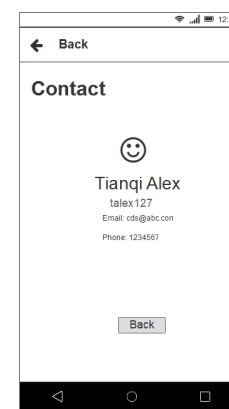

View the care provider's current patients

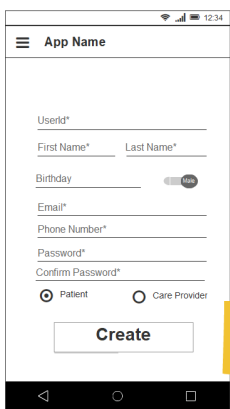

Add new patient

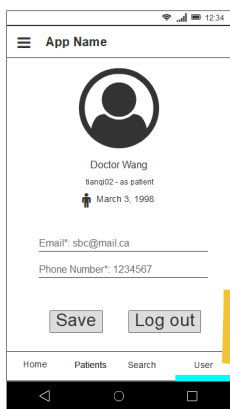

Send a request to a patient to become their designated care provider

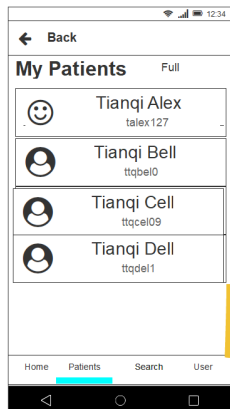

View the details of a patient before sending them a request

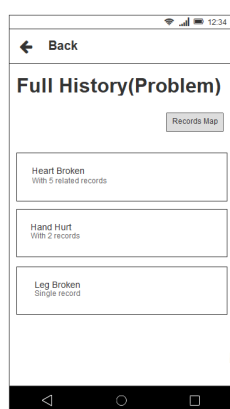

Create an account. Fields are as shown

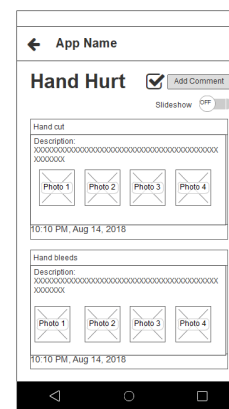

View your user profile, while logged in as a care provider

Full patient list

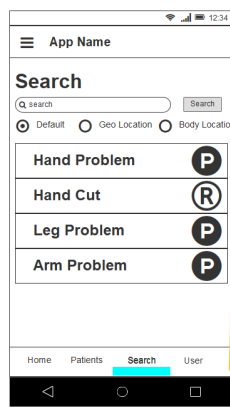

View the full problem history of your patient

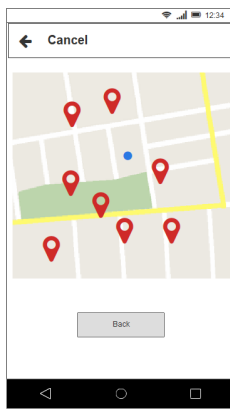

View the specific records for a patient's problem

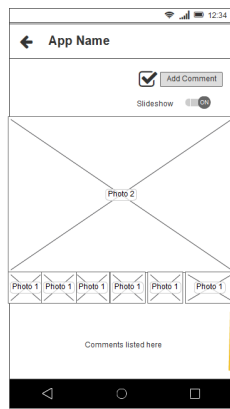

Add a comment to a patient's problem

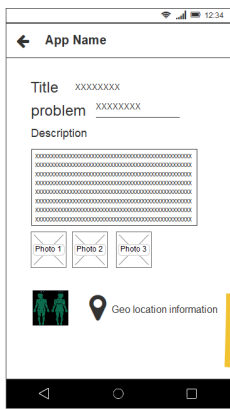

Search a particular problem for a patient

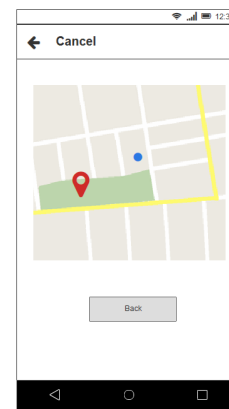

View the map of all problem locations for a patient

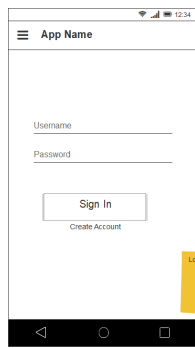

Search a particular problem for a patient

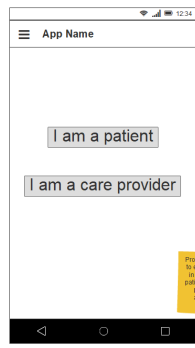

View the details of a patient's record

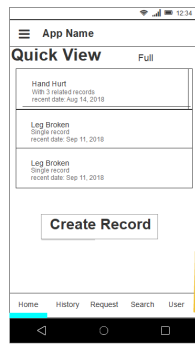

View the specific location of a patient's record

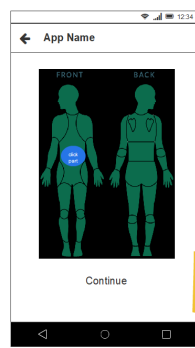

Login screen

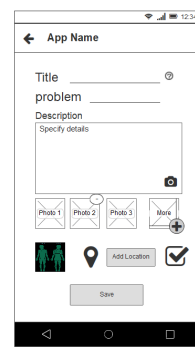

Prompts user to either sign in with their patient or care provider account

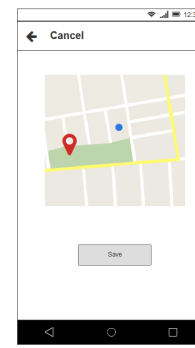

Home screen, quick view of past problems and ability to create a new one

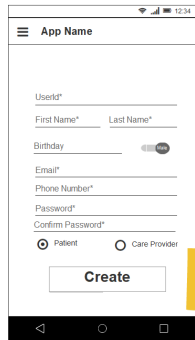

Allows the user to select the body parts showing the problem

Add new details to the record, add images, description, link it to an existing or new problem, add location

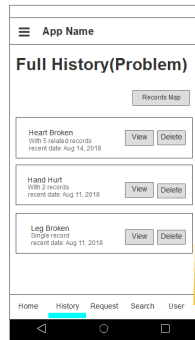

Map for the record

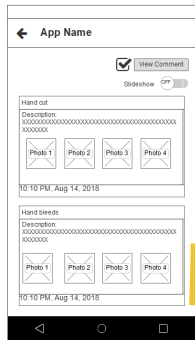

Account creation, all fields are required

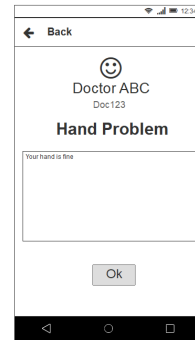

Viewing the details of an account

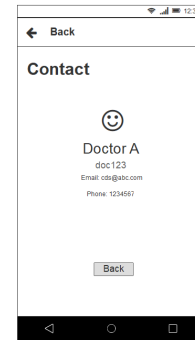

Viewing the full history of problems, accessed by clicking at the history number

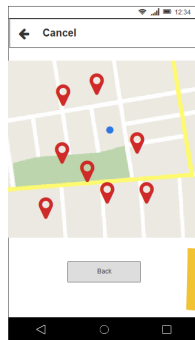

Account creation, all fields are required

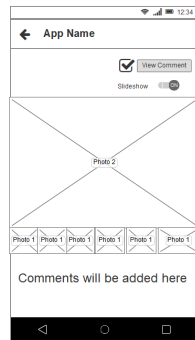

Viewing a comment from a care provider for a problem

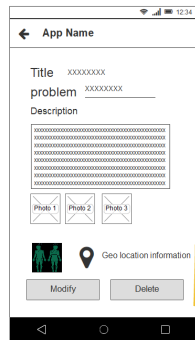

Viewing the account of a care provider

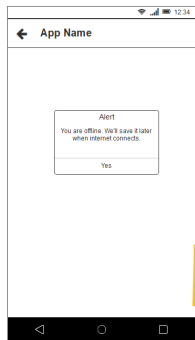

Viewing all locations of past records, able to view red or past locations

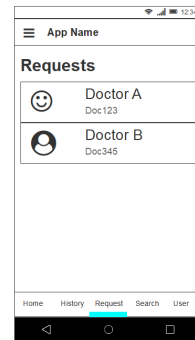

Viewing the image of a record

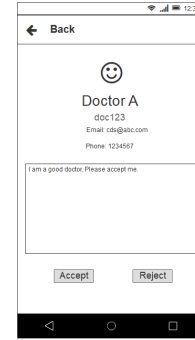

Editing a patient's record

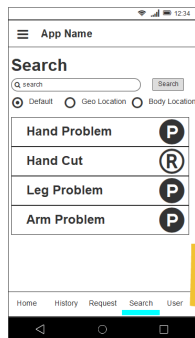

Offline notice, displayed when a record is saved while offline

See the care given, requesting to tell you as their patient

The message accompanying a care given request

Searching a user's list of problems

